

33 years ago
I was inspired
to explore the Arctic.
I've finally finished the book.

‘Seventh Journey’ is my story.
I froze. I starved. I capsized.
In fact, it’s a miracle that I lived.
But I learned some timeless lessons.
About my real self. About leadership.
About teamwork when you’re facing death.
I hope this book will move you profoundly.
