Join us for a focused and fun workgroup to improve your intuition! Learn to read your body, other people, and the energy field around you. Access accurate answers from your right brain and from preverbal “energy information.” Shift into your intuition at will and “feel into” things more and more deeply. You can cultivate fluidity and the ability to recognize and clear even the most subtle blocks to your own flow of talent, wisdom, and love. You can learn to trust yourself.

We'll focus on these abilities:

- working skillfully with the left and right brain; moving easily through the creation cycle and the “round trip” between the physical, and the nonphysical, unified field reality of the imaginal realm
- experiencing the consciousness of the body, the brain in the heart
- developing empathic sensitivity that informs but doesn't overwhelm you
- interpreting and deciphering energy information and symbols
- reading patterns in people and situations
- discriminating truth and safety from lies and inappropriateness
- heightening your clarity
- finding the optimal way through stuckness
- materializing what you want and need; dematerializing what's old
- finding the sacred within the ordinary

How you can apply what you learn:

- drill down to find your latent talents and life purpose
- help others connect with their true self
- solve problems holistically and with a win-win for all involved
- develop greater faith in yourself and others
- stay in touch with inner guidance and self-entertainment
- expand your creativity and ability to ground your ideas
- reduce negativity, anxiety, and soul-blocking behaviors

“With intuition, we know what we need to know, right when we need to know it. The universe, it seems, doesn't waste time or energy. Intuition presents information to us just when we need it, not a moment too soon nor too late, and uses any means available to reach us.”

Penney Peirce's work is open-minded, practical, and sophisticated, synthesizing diverse cultural and spiritual world views with many years' experience in business as a designer and corporate art director.

She is extraordinarily attuned to the intricacies of the mind and the dimensions of human awareness, blending a deep understanding of natural laws with a designer's skill in structural patterning.

She is known for her ability to present complex ideas in a common sense, easy-to-understand way. Penney lives in Florida.

Private Consultations with Penney Peirce

Penney Peirce has a unique ability to describe your highest potential, or that of your business, and how it may come about. Intuitive consultations read your core pattern and suggest ways you can realize more of your authentic motivation and talent, while dissolving interferences to expansion.

Intuitively, Penney sees more of what's possible—and this is often predictive. These penetrating clairvoyant/empathic consultations precisely overview the dynamics of your life and current transitions, and outline highest probabilities for positive growth.

Many people report that the information in one session lasts several years. Penney consistently sheds new perspective on complex situations, helping to catalyze lasting transformation. This is not fortune-telling—but an effective delineation of the hidden mechanics of your psyche and life.

In addition, a consultation with Penney is a chance to talk about issues related to personal frequency, heightened sensitivity and empathy, stabilizing the new spherical-holographic perception, and clearing yourself of energetic blockages.

90 minutes, digitally recorded. Bring laptop/thumb drive if you want the file transferred directly. $300 US. Please be on time!
